Azure Cognitive Search Overview

Azure Cognitive Search is a fully managed information retrieval service that enables developers to create rich search experiences. It supports full-text search, faceted navigation, filters, ranking, semantic search, and vector search.

Key Features:
- Vector search for semantic retrieval
- Custom analyzers for text processing
- Indexers to automate ingestion
- Skilled extraction using Cognitive Services
- Security and RBAC integration